THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI KAMLA SINHA): (a) and (b) Government are aware of press reports about Pakistan's suspected chemical weapons programme. However, the Pakistan Government has in an official statement stated inter-alia that "Pakistan has always been an ardent advocate of a complete ban on the development, production, stockpiling and use of chemical weapons". Pakistan is a signatory to the Chemical Weapons OBnvention (CWC) but is yet to ratify it. Government is hopeful that Palcistan will ratify the CWC at the earliest. India is an orginal State Party to CWC which entered into force on 29th April, 1997. The convention requires States Parties to provide certain declarations within stipulated time schedules. Accordingly, India submitted these declarations which contain details of India's chemical weapons' stocks and production facilities, as mandated by the Convention.

Burton Amendment Reducing US Aid to India

1727. SHRI SHIV CHARAN SINGH: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the proposed Burton Amendment, advocating reduction in aid to India by the US; and

(b)'if so. Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI SALEEM IQBAL SHERWANI): (a) Government are aware that, as in past years, US Congressman Dan Burton has proposed amendments to the Foreign Operations appropriations Bill. The thrust of the amendments is to limit US development assistance to India, on grounds of alleged human rights violations. Last year, a similar Burton Amendment had been resoundingly defeated.

(b) Government have categorically rejected the baseless allegations circulated by Congressman Burton to his Congressional colleagues. Government's strong opposition to such allegations have been made clear to US congressmen and Senators. Government remain alert to developments in this regard.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI KAMLA SINHA): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. A Joint Statement was issued in isiamabad on 23 June, 1997 on the counclusion of the second round of the resumed Foreign Secretary level talks between India and Pakistan. It was decided that . the two countries will address, inter alia, the following subjects:
(a) peace and Security, including CBMs;
(b) Jummu and Kashmir; (c) Siachen; (d) Tulbul Navigation Project; (e) Sir Creek; (f) Terrorism and drug trafficking; (g) Economic and Commercial Cooperation; (h) Promotion of friendly exchanges in various fields. They also agreed to set up a mechanism, including working groups at appropriate levels, to address all these issues in an integrated manner; the issues at (a) and (b) above will be dealt at the level of the Foreign Secretaries, who will also coordinate and monitor the progress of ail the working groups. Both sides further agreed to take all possible steps to prevent hostile propaganda and provocative actions against each other.

The Joint Statement provides the basis for a comprehensive, constructive and sustained dialogue between India and Pakistan. It is the framework under which substantive discussions would take place on various issues. We look upon it as a step forward in our efforts to engage Pakistan on a broad front with the objective of building a relationship of trust, friendship and cooperation.
